NAUTICAL LICENCE OR DOCUMENT FOR DRIVING

---

ITALIAN CITIZENS

The obligation to have a compulsory nautical license to drive watercrafts has been in force since 2005. The fine for those caught riding a watercraft without a boat license starts from a minimum of 2,100 Euros, up to a maximum of 8,263 Euros.

EU CITIZENS

Citizens of Member States of the European Union shall not be required to hold a boat license in order to control recreational craft if they produce a statement issued by their own authorities to the effect that the legislation of the country of origin of the person concerned does not provide for the issue of any certificate of competency.

Otherwise they will have to produce a valid nautical license.

OTHER FOREIGN CITIZENS

Foreigners and Italian citizens living abroad must be in possession of a nautical license or equivalent document recognized by their country of origin.

RENTING WITHOUT BOAT LICENSE

Hiring without a Boating License is ABSOLUTELY FORBIDDEN.
